

THE CHRONICLE

We exist to partner with you for Kingdom work.

While we recently talked about Fraud, in our April edition of The Chronicle, we believe it's such an important topic, we are going to highlight it again for our September issue.

This article from Brotherhood Mutual is a great example of action steps your organization can use to set up barriers to fraud. They claim, and we unfortunately have also seen that, "Christians...consider church to be a haven from the ills of the world, a place of peace and kindness, and a shelter of care for one another. While true, these same characteristics provide a welcome to those who choose to take advantage of an environment of trust, one that encourages participation, often with little supervision."

While it may seem like an impossible mission to safeguard your organization, there are resources available to help get you back on track. Brotherhood Mutual has several examples, as does the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (acfe.com). You can also follow along with our Anti-Fraud series on our blog.

If you know your organization has some gaps in accountability, but aren't sure where to start, please reach out to us today:

STAFF SPOTLIGHT: MIKE HALEY

Mike Haley started his courier position with Miller Management 8 years ago this month. You can find him on any given Wednesday morning or Thursday afternoon traversing through the southern roads of the metro.

He is married to his lovely wife, Susan, and they have two daughters and two granddaughters. Mike and Susan were part of the original core group at North Heartland Community Church and still attend there today.

Mr. Haley is a self proclaimed "old man who enjoys retirement." And according to him you can be retired and still be a part-time courier. :) And we are glad he thinks that way - Mike makes a great addition to our team!

THE HAPPENINGS

LEADERSHIP AND THE CHURCH

The second stop of the Leadership and the Church conference this year will be Hannibal, MO. Join us on September 22nd for a half day of learning regarding Stability, Safety, and Security. The cost is only $25 per church, for up to three attendees. For more information, or to register for the event, visit: LeadershipAndTheChurch.com or our Facebook event.

WELCOME, RACHEL!

Rachel Davis is a Kansas City native and has always been a die-hard Royals fan. She loves to be outside, run, travel with her husband, and spend time with their daughter. Mrs. Davis joined our Client Services team a few months ago and this is what Suzanne Freese, Client Services Department Manager, had to say about her: "It has been a pleasure to have Rachel working with us in the Client Services Department. She comes in each day with a smile on her face and ready to face the new challenges that come in. I look forward to seeing all she can accomplish with her creative thinking and enthusiasm for our Mission!"

IN THE NEXT ISSUE ...

In the next issue of The Chronicle, we are going to take some time to honor Pastors for Pastor Appreciation Month! Be on the look-out for tips, tricks, articles, books, and some positive stories! We will also be diving into year-end. (Yes, you read that correctly.) And we have a special story to share!

OFFICE HACK

A change in your morning could help you be a happier, less stressed, & encouraging officemate. By starting your day: Extra Early, With things you Love, With Fluids, With Breakfast, & With Some Movement...read more about Morning Routings our blog.

VERSE OF THE MONTH

2 Corinthians 9:7

"Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver."

CAPTAIN'S CORNER

"We're not just in the accounting business, we're in the communication business. Our reports have to be readable and understandable to help our clients make good decisions."

- Dr. Glenn A. Miller
