INDUSTRY SPOTLIGHT: PODCAST

We have been getting antsy to share this news ... Miller Management is producing a podcast entitled: Leadership and the Church!

We wanted to add another resource to our repertoire of Resources, and podcasting felt like the next natural outlet. We have used the Leadership and the Church training arm before, and are ready to bring it back with this endeavor. There will be no staff reshuffling with this project, just more content you can add with your earbuds on. Read more about why we wanted to start this in the first place on our MM in Your Earbuds post.

Miller Management is taking the reigns from another podcaster, so look for Leadership and the Church in your favorite podcast player and listen to the transition episode, or any of the backlog. Watch for new weekly Leadership and the Church episodes to hit in July 2022.

Michelle is our Client Services Manager and has been with MM for the past two years. She brings with her over 30 years of experience in banking office management and human resources.

Being the co-founder of a non-profit, Michelle understands how the accounting and administrative tasks can quickly burn through time that could rather be spent on ministry. Michelle appreciates that Miller Management takes this burden from our clients so they can focus their time and energy on their mission!

THE HAPPENINGS

WELCOME, INTERNS

MM is grateful for our summer assistants - especially when they turn into year-round help. Our “summer intern program” started over 10 years ago with high school students, and has now expanded to include high school and college students.

We are delighted with how it’s going and for the assistance they provide with special projects. Some people over the years include: Liz, Allie, Megan, Bailey, Kayla, Breanna, Kalynn, Sydnie, Tyler, McKinley, and Madison. As you can see, some have stayed with MM, and some have graduated to their field of work after college. The last two people on the list are new this summer. Welcome to the team, ladies, we are excited for our future.

SERVICE PROJECT

For our fourth annual service project this year, we had different avenues for participation. Some of our staff went to help clean a women’s clinic and some of our staff wrote notes for local assisted living centers. Other staff participate in personal volunteer work throughout the year - like helping clean, paint, and repair a local food bank.

No matter how our employees choose to volunteer, we are grateful that so many of them make it a priority in their busy schedules. We are also grateful when that coordinates with one of Miller Management’s own clients, as some of these did this year.

OFFICE HACK

Non-Monetary Gifts

Need help with volunteers and staff going on vacations this summer? Have targeted summer programs that need funding and volunteers? Now is the time to remind your constituents how they can help out your ministry. In monetary and non-monetary ways.

VERSE OF THE MONTH

2 Corinthians 8:12

“For if the willingness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has, not according to what one does not have.”

CAPTAIN’S CORNER

“Seldom is a healthy ministry culture created by just what we say. Culture is created by what we do, and by how we do it.”
- Dr. Glenn A. Miller
