INDUSTRY SPOTLIGHT: TRAININGS

Our first course of 2023 is underway, but if you missed that sign-up, never fear. We have four more course offerings this year! The next course, 5 Keys to Utilizing Your Financial Data, will be offered in both an evening and daytime session on April 4th. Having accurate and timely financial statements is essential for every ministry. How to read and understand those statements is just as important. This 90 minute course will walk you through the bases of accounting, the three financial statements your ministry needs to have and understand, and then you will learn about how to utilize that information to help your ministry make informed decisions. Learn more about all the courses, and sign-up for any session on our Conference page.

TJ Persell started in the Miller Management Accounting department in 2021. That is also the year he married his wife who is an area school teacher. One of his favorite parts of working at MM is the ability our skills provide to free ministry leaders, so they can focus on their mission. Something you may not know about TJ is his love of Legos - even his custom MM logo one! From TJ, "I continuously thank the Lord for placing me at Miller Management. I pray that He is the One building this house, and trust that my labor is not in vain - (Psalm 127:1)."

THROWBACK

This year marks 10 years of producing The Chronicle. So in this section this year, we will be highlighting a past issue. This month, we are focusing on February 2016. In that issue, we were highlighting an area-wide conference and shared a funny article about “Things You Never Hear in Church.” View that issue for even more surprises.

We had a few things to look back on over the past year. A small recap of some of our top visited pages and posts can be found on this blog post.

VERSE OF THE MONTH

Psalm 127:1

“Unless the Lord builds the house, those who build it labor in vain. Unless the Lord watches over the city, the watchman stays awake in vain.”

CAPTAIN'S CORNER

“Sometimes we are hanging on to something that isn't God's best when He is waiting on us to give it up so He can give us His best.”
