Miller MANAGEMENT

Founded in 1989

35TH YEAR ANNIVERSARY

This year we are embarking on a new journey: 35 years of business! As most of you have heard, this year (and every other one going forward) will look a little different.

But we believe the best way to honor Dr. Glenn Miller's legacy is to continue on with our celebration of his life, the company he co-founded, and all the lives and ministries he has helped in his short time on earth.

So we press on with our regularly scheduled ministry work (payroll & accounting), special events, and trainings. Our mission is unwavering in providing Expertise that brings Clarity in finances enabling leadership to have Confidence in their decision making.

The Miller Management company will continue on and we are excited for what lays ahead for us as a company partnering with churches all over the US. Helping educate, equip, and encourage ministry leaders since 1989.

You'll want to have this resource available for weeks and years to come.

*"Do not be grieved, the joy of the LORD is your strength."
Nehemiah 8:10b*

CHANGE MANAGEMENT

We have been making changes over the last couple of years in our Leadership team (which you can read about in our Leadership Realignment blog) and also promoting more people from within recently. You can listen to this podcast series with Chris and Glenn Miller on how to walk your organization through change well. There are also some helpful visual aids with each week that can be found on LeadershipandtheChurch.com.

MM Highlights

JOY IN JANUARY

You may have heard us mention that we were just in the midst of Year-End season. While there are extra hours put in, more reports to run, more payrolls to process, preliminary financials, and 1099 reporting, (just to name a few extras) we also sneak in some fun.

This year was no exception - we searched for ways to find the Joy in January by providing treats on a few occasions, having access to prayer times, devotionals for each day, and coloring spaces available. No January is complete without a Spirit Week as well. You can see some of the highlights on our Facebook page.

2024 Miller Management training course list is live! With our first client training on April 16th. Visit GoodFaithAccounting.com/2024-trainings for more information.

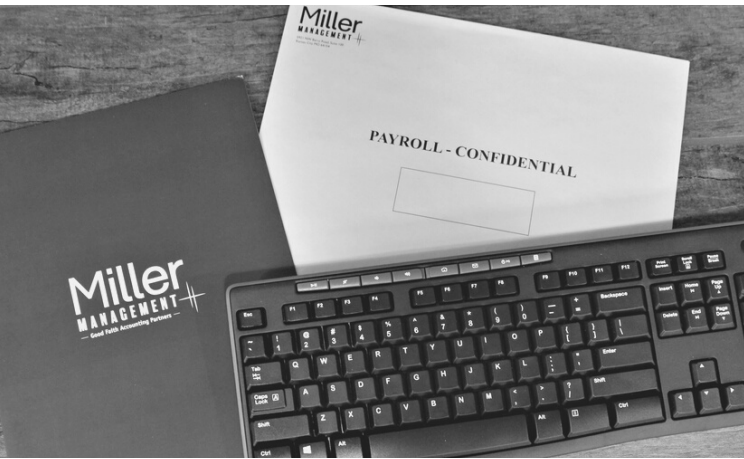

STAFF HIGHLIGHT: CORLY KALLIN

One of those internal promotions mentioned earlier is Corly Kallin. She started at Miller Management in 2023 and was promoted to Team Lead before her first year had ended. She brought several years of experience in the church financial field, and we are so happy to have her knowledge and skillset on the Client Services team! To read more about Corly, visit our website.
