CHRISTMAS CHEER

Sharing some staff Christmas favorites on our blog for this Christmas Cheer section. Some favorite holiday traditions, favorite songs, and what we are most looking forward to for the year ahead.

While traditions are, "the way things have always been done," these practices get to be traditions for a reason. Someone remembered it from a previous year and looked back on it fondly. Or they don't remember a time when they weren't doing that thing.

So it is for our staff, too, as you'll see in our Christmas Traditions post. While these traditions are often gentle reminders leading us back to the one the season is pointing towards, we also encourage you to take a minute to rest in Him before you tackle your next holiday tradition - or year end task!

Need of refresher of those tasks? Visit our year-end page here.

To go along with our Christmas Traditions themed post, if you'd like to view our Kansas City Christmas party, look no further. Also at the Kansas City Christmas party, we took some time out of the evening to celebrate some big anniversary milestones. Those are in a separate post, because there were just so many people we wanted to celebrate!

ENCOURAGEMENT JOURNAL

Leaning into the “Good Faith” part of our name; each month our staff have the opportunity to attend an internal Chapel with both music and a special speaker. We’ve mostly kept them to ourselves over the years, but wanted to bring you in this year and spread the encouragement. We will also try to keep it relevant to the “financial partner” part of our tag line. Continuing this series with November: Seek the Lord, and December: How to Prepare for Advent.
