1099 UPDATES

This season is a time to prepare and plan for the next season ahead. For most of us, this next season is the busiest one all year.

This summer we sent out a memo detailing the new 1099 Threshold Updates for the 2026 fiscal year-end. Before we get hyper vigilant with year-end preparations, we wanted to make sure you saw how this change could impact your organization.

What it might change: who receives a 1099. Your list may look different - even shorter - than in previous years.

What it won't change: your need for backup documentation. It is still best practices to have proper and complete documentation before submitting the first payment to a new vendor.

Learn more about the impacts of the change, the documentation requirements, and blank forms and templates your organization can utilize for free on our recent post 1099 Threshold Updates for 2026.

STATE OF GIVING IN NON-PROFITS & CHURCHES

The state of giving, burnout, and program needs might be weighing on you as an organization leader. And according to the research we found, you are not alone. While the trend in giving for churches is on the rise, our non-profit friends are not seeing the same results. Read more on our blog where we offer some support to walk alongside you as partners in ministry.

"Jesus said to him, 'Rise, take up your bed and walk.' And immediately the man was made well, took up his bed, and walked." - John 5:8-9

BUILDING UPDATES

You might have seen a few highlights on our social accounts, but a couple of our spaces got a little refresh this summer. Our company has always had a mission of creating an inviting and hospitable space for our clients and staff. It comes with the territory of being a faith-based organization. But even if you aren't one of those, you can notice the difference an inviting, calm, and beautiful space can make. Hospitality is key to thriving organizations

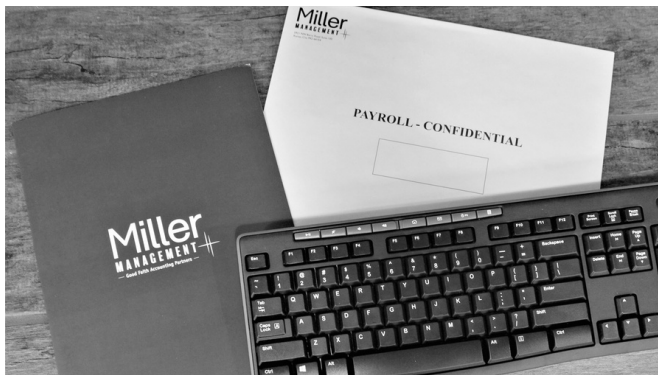

STAFF SPOTLIGHT

While Rebecca van der Merwe is living Stateside for a season, her role at Miller Management has given her a deeper insight into church practices and she thoroughly enjoys every aspect of working with our clients. With every foreign missions assignment she was a part of, there was always a need for financial administration. She learned basic bookkeeping and AP in Eswatini, accounting practices and non-profit administration in South Africa, and put it all to together in Uganda. She also met her husband on the mission field, and they were blessed to raise their three children in Africa. As a family, they love people and investing their time and resources into the everyday journey of making disciples. A fun fact about Rebecca is, she is over 2,000 days into learning French on Duolingo. But if you need her to speak it, she asks you to talk very, very slowly!

ENCOURAGEMENT JOURNAL

Leaning into the "Good Faith" part of our name; each month our staff have the opportunity to attend an internal Chapel with both music and a special speaker. Sharing a little taste of those on our blog.
